■ ATLA Religion Database™ – Alumni Access

Produced by the American Theological Library Association, this database is the definitive index for religious and theological literature, and is an essential resource for researchers and students in theology as well as in social sciences, history and humanities. ATLA Religion Database provides information on topics such as:

- Biblical studies
- Church history
- World religions
- Religion in social issues

ATLA Religion Database contains more than 1.6 million bibliographic records covering the research literature of religion in over 60 languages. It includes more than 555,000 article citations from more than 1,656 journals (518 currently indexed); more than 232,000 essay citations from over 16,700 multi-author works; more than 511,000 book review citations; and a growing number of multimedia citations. Most coverage spans from 1949 to the present, while an ambitious retrospective indexing project provides citations of select titles back to their original publication date.

■ ATLASerials™, Religion Collection – Alumni Access

This resource combines the premier index to journal articles, book reviews and collections of essays in all fields of religion with ATLA's online collection of major religion and theology journals. The database includes more than 555,000 article citations from more than 1,656 journals (518 currently indexed); more than 232,000 essay citations from over 16,700 multi-author works; more than 511,000 book review citations; and a growing number of multimedia citations. Coverage in this database begins in 1949, although indexing for some journal titles extends back into the nineteenth century. This database is produced by the American Theological Library Association.
