

Department of Archives and Special Collections Fee Schedule

Copyright Restrictions

Reproductions are supplied for reference purposes only. Materials in the collections may be protected by the United States copyright law (Title 17, U.S. Code). Those who request photographic copies of material or copies of sounds recordings assume all responsibility for questions of copyright infringement arising from the copying and use of copies purchased from this department.

1. All requests require completion of a duplication request form, which can be found under Policies and Forms.
2. All orders must be paid in advance. We accept check or credit card.
3. All requests will be carried out by, and at the discretion of, staff or outsourced by staff to a trusted vendor. Charges for these services as well as limits on the number of scans or photocopies that may be requested are listed in the current Fee Schedule. If the possibility of damage to the materials exists, staff will not fulfill the request (See Rules for Researchers).
4. Staff will determine timeframe for completion of duplication requests based on staff availability and request load.
5. Researchers are encouraged to use non-flash personal devices to photograph collection materials in the reading room. No fees apply.
6. Researchers are limited to 70 photocopies per request.
7. Researchers are limited to 30 scans per fiscal year.
8. Limited to 30 in-house hi-re photographs per fiscal year.
9. Exceptions to these policies are decided by the A&SC staff on a case-by-case basis.
10. Mail delivery fees may apply based on current USPS rate.
